MILHOLLAND DECLARES WAR.

Refuses to Accept the Decision of the Five Sub-Committeemen.

BITTER AGAINST BOSS PLATT

He Is Accused of Betraying the Men Who Fought Under His Banner.

Won't Join Hands with Brockfield, but will Carry the Fight to the Convention.

It was definitely learned this afternoon that Milholland has determined to fight tooth and nail against being shut programme furnished in the report of and

The meeting of the Executive Comof the State Club at 29 East Twentysecond street was fraught with ginger and oratorical pyrotechnics. Dr. Hamilton Williams presided, and speeches were made by Milholland, H. C. Piercy, T. Thomas Fortune, Leon Cohen, H. B. Wilson, Wilson Berryman, Wilkinson, John Montagnani, Henry Grasse, F. J. Martin and Ste-

The speakers, without exception, scored Thomas C. Platt in the bitterest terms. "Betrayed! betrayed!" was the burden of the cry, and one and all favored the taking up of the gauni-t and fighting to the bitter end.

Mr. Milholiand's speech, white noticeably free from any personal allusion to Mr. Plast, was of the most peppery character.

Mr. Platt, was of the most peppery character.

Among other things he said that to lay down their arms now and join hands with the Committee of Thirty, thereby tacitly admitting that the accusations made by the Milhollandites against that body were not true, would be an action unworthy of men.

Among other things which were suggested was the selection of a full list of delegates to fight in the Convention.

A committee of seven, with Milholland and Kerwin as ex-officio members, was appointed to draw up a declaration of independence, which will be made public next Monday.

The other members of the war committee are: Dr. Hamilton Williams, Henry Grasse, T. Thomas Fortune, Stephen N. Simonson, Henry C. Piercy, H. B. Wilson and F. J. Martin.

While everybody was waiting for the State Committee to go into session word came from Milholland's headquarters, 29 East Twenty-second street, that the Executive Committee had met this morning and put themselves on record as against anything which savored of a compromise; in fact, that a compromise involving a division of patronage would not be ac cepted.

come from Mr. Mitholland himself. The Committee went into session at 11 o'clock sharp, and the meeting lasted only twenty minutes.

The sub-committee's report was read full, and the motion to adjourn was immediately put in such lead terms that it was heard through the tightly closed and guarded door.

A few moments later the members of the Committee filed out, and Secretary Fox gave the press representatives the SERGE

The Report.

"After a hearing, of which both organigations were given ample time to fully present their claims, and after very careful consideration of all the facts, your Committee beg to report that in their judgment the organization formed under the auspices of the so-called Committee of Thirty, is the regular Republicall organization in and for the city and county of New York. If this conclusion shall become the judgment of the State Committee it will follow heressarily that the Republican County Committee, of which William Brookfield is President, has sole jurisdiction under the constitution it has ordained of the affairs of the Republican party of that city and county.

"Perhamiter of Your Perhamiter that city and county.

Perhaps it is no function of your Committee or of the body to which its report is made to dictate to any regular subordinate organization how it shall perform its duties or discharge its trusts. The existing situation in New York City is so perilip.

in existing situation in New York City is so peculiar, however, and our concern for the welfare of the whole party is so steat as to compel us to report in addition to the resolution declaring the regularity of the new enrolment and organization, perfected under the supervision of the Committee of Thirty, a further resolution recommending to the Republican County Committee a policy to be pursued towards the organization farmed by Mr. Milholiand and his friends.

Treat Them Tenderly. Your Committee does not undertake to waat is the precise numerical

That it possesses strength, together with elements of great usefulness to the Republican party, are facts not to be seriously disputed. If its strength is not evenly distributed throughout the city, it is undeniably strong where the Republican organization has been hitherto weak, and it has succeeded in bringing together to the gerat advantage of the party a body of carnest and aggressive Rejublicans eager to enlist in active work. They deserve not rebuke, but recognition and encouragement.

"It is to be borne in mind that the conditions under which this organization sprang into such vigorous existence were unique. If they did not actually justify the particular enterprise which was undertaken, they certainly afforded plausible arguments to excuse it. At all events the "reganization of which Mr. Milholiand is "resident does exist, and it exists as an association of Republicans.

Blessed Is the Peacemaker.

"There is not room in the county of New York for two governing bodies, and steps should at once be taken on such terms as are fair beyond question, and can be honorably accepted or both sides, for the complete obliteration of all lines suggestive of faction.

"Naturally, from the controversies that have been going on so long, strong feeling has arisen, and it will not be easily subdued or forgotten. But Republicans must recognize the incomparable opportunity that is now presented to the party, and the high and patriotic duty which compels every Republican to control considerations of personal advantage, and to use every influence he possenses to bring about that complete reconciliation and accord within the party which will enable it to go to the polis in the ensuing election as one organization, unified in purpose, in effort and in hope. We report, therefore, the following resolutions.

"Resolved, That the Republican State Committee of the State of New York recommend that provision be immediately made for the incorporation of the Republican organization of which John E. Milholland is President into the regular Republican organization by designating two days or evenings prior to the holding of the caucuses for naming State delegates in each election district for the enrolment of all Republican wishing to join said regular Republican organization.

What They Think of It.

The Committee of Thirty people are jubilant, and ten minutes after the report was made public the crowd melted away to spread the glad tidings.

Bome of the opinions on the result

Some of the opinions on the result follow:
William Brookfield—Right has prevailed. I could not see any other way for the trouble to end.
There was nothing to do but recognize our organization. There is work left for us now to enroll all the Republicans in the city in our ranks.
William H. Bellamy—The trouble is settled and I am glad of it. There is no reason now why all Republicans should not be united. I will not oppose any reasonable concessions to the Milholland people. The County Committee will undoubtedly follow the recommendation of the State Committee and give Milholland a share of the election inspectors. Never jump on a man who is down.

Cornelius Van Cott—As I have said all along I could see no other result. We can now enroll all Republicans for the good of the party.

Mr. Milholland was seen for a moment in the hotel corridor after the announcement of the result.

"I have nothing to say now," he said, "except that the battle isn't ended yet. We will carry the fight to a higher court."

BASEBALL GROUNDS, WASHING TON, D. C., Aug. 9.-New York's last tinging defeat, 12 to 10, was presented this afternoon, when the final game in the New York-Washington series was played on these grounds. The series stands 9 to 2 in the Giants' favor, and if 10-2 before the setting sun tints the hills of Georgetown to-night, there'll be a paucity of jollity in the camp of the Gothamites.

A good deal of confidence was felt by the rooters for New York when Doyle and Ferrell were seen practising in their usual places, and nobody looked boys do not relish the caustic comments to a club of "dubs," such as the

FOUND IN THE RIVER. At 4 o'clock this afternoon the body of an unknown man was found floating in the North River at the foot of Jane street. The body is described as that of a man about forty years old, 5 feet 7 inches tall, dark hair, whiskers and mus-tache. It was diessed in a black suit of clothes and white shirt. There were no shoes nor stockings on his feet. Nothing was found on the body to identify it.

Expanded by Heat.

(From the indianapolis News.)
"Can any little boy here," asked the visitor, "give me an example of the expansion of substances by heat?" I can." said Tommy, "Our dog's tongue is twicet as long now as it was last Winter."
